I started to write a letter to you ~~but~~ did not get finish ed until it was too old to send on my birthday I had a ~~very~~ interesting dinner with all the things belonging to it.

2
how is fangs baby?
I got - fact and fill by Louise in alcott she tells such funny things. We had an old lady whom I call Aunt Sara.

but she is gone now.
we miss her very much
my lovely puppy
I was is dead but I am to have his bro ther but Dina had f
-ts and a boy hit him

things he was mad.
so he suffered so mother had to drown him in the bath tub. I practise 3 hours a day except Sunday.
I am going to play out soon again. I like to get logreets when I play there is such a lot more flowers here than Calgary. I have a lagonia and palm of my own hand

Dear Leta. This is Kathleen's first letter she did it alone as you can see. Can you make it out.

I have been spelling for her all day. The poor little puppy did she felt this so much. Eva Morton is on her way will arrive day after tomorrow. Mrs Brown the Aunt Sara K speaks of was here two weeks. She was such a dear old lady & quite a bit like my mother. It is growing dark & K - wants it mailed red hot.

She is so excited & the dozens

We will send programme of her next-concert. she does play lovely to be sure.

of things she wished to write but the poor little hand gets so cramped. She wanted to speak of Eileen & Mary. and your sketch especially the calendars. and Mrs James & the Baby. who it rather she looks like I get pict- we will prompt Eve to draw & hope she has seen you all lately so it will be direct.

Good night excuse haste with lots of love to all the family
